Update: Armed Robbery

Manchester Police have made an arrest in an armed robbery that took place on December 29, 2021.

On the above mentioned date, at approximately 11:30 am, Manchester Police responded to the Fast Track convenience store at 136 Willow St.

Police learned that a suspect entered the store, which was very crowded at the time, displayed a large black revolver, and demanded money. The clerk gave him cash and he left on foot heading toward Claremont Ave.

Hours later, at approximately 3 pm, Manchester Police in the area of the homeless camp behind the Wal-mart on Gold St located a male that met the description of the suspect. He was identified as, 54 year old Michael Regan of Manchester (no set address). Regan did not immediately cooperate with police, but eventually came out of a tent and was taken into custody without further incident.

Regan was charged with Felon in Possession of a Dangerous Weapon, Armed Robbery, and Resisting Arrest. Regan was also found to have two active warrants, one for Duty to Report (Registered Sex Offender) and another for Possession of a Controlled Drug.
